

20% Excise Tax
on Movie Tickets
Should Be Killed

I have just finished reading the statement of Congressman Orrin Harris before the Committee on Ways and Means of the House of Representatives in support of H. R. 157, which is a bill to exempt motion picture theaters from the federal tax on admissions.

This salient paragraph was this: "A few months ago there were 102 television stations in the United States. Applications for additional stations had been frozen for more than four years. The freeze was lifted in June of last year and already today there are more than 200 stations and applications are being approved almost every day. It will be only a matter of time until it is anticipated there will be some 2,000 television stations throughout the country. In most of the homes of the country there will be television just as there has been and will continue to be radio. There is no excise tax charged directly to the viewers for the programs. The entertainment, the recreation, education, etc., of these facilities therefore provide the keenest competition with the movie and theater industry."

Some people, of course, are worried about what happens to the movie industry under this 20 percent excise tax. Such folks feel that theater-going is a luxury, and may even be worldly or immoral. But this is neither the majority nor responsible opinion in our country. The great majority of us recognize the movie houses as a necessary element of popular relaxation.

I recall years ago when I first came to Hope the motion picture houses did not operate on Sunday, and when some of us helped get them open we had to listen to the rather crusty argument that there was a moral difference between going to the movies and playing golf or motoring on Sunday — something that the speakers themselves did not really believe.

But the minority group who oppose theaters as such unquestionably aid the natural inertia of government in the matter of repealing an unfair and crippling tax. How serious is the tax picture with the theaters? Well, here are a couple of facts:

Many a local movie house over America is today collecting and forwarding to the federal government more money in tax than it is receiving to the theater-owner in profit. In fact, some of the houses are running at a loss, and to the majority of them the tax collection against their "gate" represents the difference between respectable profit and the perilous position of barely "getting by."

The way the movie folks look at it, the government levies this huge tax against theater-goers — with its inevitable depressive effect on the industry — and then turns around and spends this tax money holding Federal Communications hearings to create television stations which furnish entertainment that costs neither admission nor tax.

This is a question of equity, and solely on that issue the excise tax as applied to movie houses should be killed.

Navy Planes Tangle With Enemy Jets

By MILO FARNET
SEOUL, (AP) — U. S. Sabre jets tangled with Communist MIG-15s for the first time in eight days today. One of the sleek swept-wing fighters was damaged in the sky tangle, matching 10 Sabres against 16 MIGs.

The Navy, meanwhile, sent swarms of carrier-based fighter-bombers and a trio of warships against two Key Communist port areas on Korea's East Coast.

A reinforced Chinese company of perhaps 200 men made a half-hearted attack on a Central Front outpost as ground fighting remained almost at a standstill.

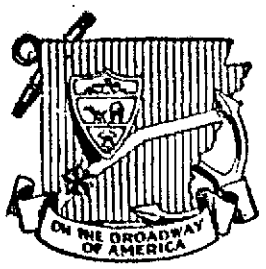

U. S. 7th Division troops opened up with artillery and mortar fire and the Reds scurried back to their own lines after a brief long-range battle, the Eighth Army said.

The Sabres and MIGs met high over Northwest Korea, just a few miles south of the Yalu River. There has been speculation that Red pilots were being put through an intensive loyalty check as a result of the U. N. Command's offer of $50,000 to Communist fliers delivering MIGs to the Allies — with a $50,000 bonus for the first plane.

U.S. Seeking Clarification of Red Proposal As Stands Some Proposals Are Not Acceptable

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States was reported today to have instructed the United Nations command in Korea to seek clarification of some provisions of the eight-point Communist plan for handing prisoners of war after armistice.

Authoritative informants indicated that this step was preliminary to the expected formulation of U. N. counter-proposals which would aim at:

1. Eliminating a section of the Communist plan under which Communist Poland and Czechoslovakia would be permitted to put troops into South Korea for the purpose of helping handle prisoners of war who refused to go home.
2. Providing some arrangement which would assure freedom within a reasonable time for those POWs — now estimated at 48,500 — who refuse to return.

President Eisenhower, who held an urgent conference on the Korean truce situation with his top military and diplomatic advisers yesterday, met with his full staff yesterday.

Ike Says U. S. Willing to Go Halfway

NEW YORK (AP) — President Eisenhower declared last night American stands always ready to meet "any one half-way" in winning a truly peaceful, moral world—but this peace must respect the rights of all men.

This means "everybody, not only our friends," he said.

For example, in Korea, he added, United States policy is dedicated to protecting rights of all people there, including those "only lately fighting in the ranks of our enemies, people that have become our prisoners."

The President, here on a four-hour visit during which he addressed two Republican dinners, said Korean prisoners are entitled to the "right of political asylum."

"To force these people to go back to a life of terror and persecution is something that would violate every moral standard by which America lives," he declared.

Within such limits of "moral rectitude and rightness," he said, "there is no one that will ever find America's hand of friendship hidden."

"It will always be extended," Eisenhower said. "It will be ready to meet any one half-way as long as these (moral principles) and not mere words are there to substantiate the sincerity of their purpose."

Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, also addressing the $100-a-plate Republican affair, said the United Nations Command is "not

1,740 Bass Placed in Stock Ponds Throughout County

Hempstead County farmers today received 1,740 bass to stock ponds that had been stocked with brown bass last fall. This is an excellent way to produce a by-product from stock water ponds. A small pond well-stocked with bass will supply the family with ample fish for family use plus a lot of sport. To increase the pounds of fish per pond just apply commercial fertilizer such as 5-10-5 or 8-8-8.

Those receiving fish were: Mitchell Sparks, J. R. Anderson, Alvin Willis, Bob Garrett, Joe Martin, and Jesse Collins of Hope; Joe Walker, Andrew Walker of McCaskill; H. H. Nolan and Roy Foster of Blevis; Moss Rowe, Tom Stuart, J. O. Baber, and Henry Dixon of Ozark; Floyd Scott of McNabb; A. Tate of Fulton; Oscar Branch and Mark Jackson of Nashville.

Beware of Trojan Horse, Short Warns

By RUSSELL BRINES
WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Short (R-Mo) said today the latest Communist truce proposals for Korea contain a "Trojan horse" and he predicted the Eisenhower administration will reject them.

He also said in an interview that France's reluctance to "aid" the French Indochina War to the United Nations may have an "adverse effect" on Congress, which has been asked to increase Indochina aid this year.

The Communists proposed leaving in Korea the 48,500 prisoners who reportedly refuse to return to Communist territory. They would be placed under a commission comprised of representatives from Sweden, Switzerland, Poland, Czechoslovakia and India.

Short, chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, called India a "Trojan horse" and said she would hold the decisive vote. "I don't think India is neutral," he said.

He added he did not believe Secretary of State Dulles "will fall for that plan."

Rep. Vorys of Ohio, a senior Republican on the House Foreign Affairs Committee, said in a separate interview the proposed commission "looks like it will be new."

Extended Forecast

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The U. S. Weather Bureau said today that temperatures for the next five days in Arkansas will average two to four degrees below normal and that precipitation will be moderate to heavy during the period.

The Bureau forecasted cooler weather Sunday, warming by Wednesday. Thunderstorms are forecasted for Sunday.

Normal minimum temperatures during the period are 58 to 68; normal maximum temperatures 80 to 84.

More Than 700,000 Pine Tree Seedlings Planted in County During the Past Four Months

Hempstead County farmers planted more than 700,000 pine tree seedlings during the past four months, according to Emory Thompson, chairman of the Hempstead County Soil Conservation District.

The trees were planted on land not suitable or not needed for other crops, as part of overall conservation plans to treat every acre of land in accordance with its needs and use every acre of land within its capabilities.

"Pine trees are not only a profitable crop for the landowner, but provide the materials to keep our wood-using industries in operation. In illustrating the profit from growing trees as a crop, Mr. Thompson referred to pulpwood, thinnings made recently on the Garland-Boss well farm near Bodewy, and the J. B. Haynes farm near Lewisville. Each of these pine plantations had grown $72 worth of wood per acre since they were planted in 1941.

Landowners taking part in this year's tree planting program included Arch Wylie, Mrs. J. P. Owen, Foy Hammons, John Vesey, Burkett Williams, Hugh Gibson, Wilton Garrett of Hope; Donald Parker, Elmer Bell and Warren Nesbitt of Blevis; Dalton Hulse and W. B. Nelson of Washington; James Nelson and D. K. Bemis of Emmet; Milton Massey, Mark Bishop, and E. A. Sanford of Bingen; Fred Lang, Dick Shelton, and G. W. Cox of Patmos.

Many of the trees were set out with the tree planting machine provided by the Hope Chamber of Commerce.

Father Is Accused in Child's Death

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Russell Tongay, 36-year-old swimming instructor who once was acquitted of charges that he mistreated his swimmer's daughter, Kathy, today was accused of causing her death.

Det. Charles A. Sapp of the Miami Homicide Bureau said an autopsy report showed that the five-year-old child died of a ruptured intestine caused by a blow.

A warrant charging the husky, 36-year-old ex-coast Guardsman with second degree murder was issued Thursday night, minutes after Tongay was released from City Jail on a writ of habeas corpus.

Tongay had been arrested and ordered "held for investigation of murder" two hours earlier after lengthy grilling by Sapp and other officers. Tongay made no admissions during the interrogation, Sapp said.

It was in 1949 that Tongay was tried and acquitted of charges that he had mistreated Kathy. The child swimmer would have been 35 years old on May 22.

U. S. Civilians Fly Materials to Indochina

HANOI, Indochina, (UP) — American civilian pilots, flying the latest model U. S. cargo planes, today began parachuting emergency supplies to the main French-union defenses of invaded Laos.

The Americans went into action as the French command here warned that a Communist "roll-back" from previous advance positions in the invaded Indochina state may be "only a temporary maneuver."

The pilots, identified by the French command as U. S. civilians, dropped five tons of supplies from each of two "flying boxcars."

The operation was reminiscent of the exploits of the American "Flying Tigers" during the early phases of the Sino-Japanese war. A French command spokesman said the air drop to the defenders on the Plaine des Jarras was a trial run to give the Americans the feel of the country.

All six of the huge cargo planes which arrived at Hanoi recently from Korea will go into operation on the airlift tomorrow, a spokesman said.

French pilots estimated that the strength of the main enemy concentration had grown to more than a regiment in the past 24 hours, with another 3,000 troops strung out farther south.

Man Suffers Loss Of Memory, Hits Boy on Bicycle

A schoolboy, Joe Winberry, escaped serious injury yesterday when the bicycle which he was riding was hit by an auto driven by Frank Duval Sr., 68, a former saw filer at Anthony's Mill. The incident occurred near the High School. The youth had a minor knee injury.

Shortly after a car parked at Drake's Cafe downtown on Third Street was hit by the auto which Duval was driving resulting in fender and bumper damage. The damaged auto was owned by H. C. Martin of Rosston.

Duval failed to stop when he hit the bicycle but officers caught up with him at the downtown accident. He was taken to a hospital for an examination and an attending physician told officers he was a very sick man and is suffering from loss of memory which apparently was brought on by a heart condition.

City Police summoned members of his family at El Dorado and Duval was released to them last night.

Final Cotton Crop Is 15 Million Bales

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department, in a final report for the season, today put the 1952 cotton crop at 15,136,000 bales and with the ten-year (1941-51) average of 11,775,000.

This figure on the size of the crop compares with last December's estimate of 15,039,000 bales and with the ten-year (1941-51) average of 11,775,000.

Production of cottonseed was valued at 8,176,000 tons valued at $129,015,000 compared with the 1951 crop of 6,206,000 tons valued at $435,891,000.

The combined value of cotton and cottonseed from the 1952 crop was put at $4,047,261,000 compared with 7,000 tons and $3,303,627,000 for the 1951 production.

The 1952 cotton crop sold for an average of 34.6 cents a pound compared with 37.30 for the 1951 crop. Likewise, the 1952 cottonseed sold for an average of $69.60 a ton compared with $60.60 in 1951.

The yield of lint cotton per harvested acre last year was reported at an average of 161.7 pounds an acre compared with 271.9 in 1951 and with the ten-year average of 267.6.

The average of cotton harvested last year was reported at 25,664,000 acres compared with 26,787,000 in 1951 and the ten-year average of 21,020,000.

The 1952 crop of American-Egyptian type cotton was reported at 35,000 bales compared with 62,800 in 1951 and the ten-year average of 59,400.

No County to Be Left Out, Orr Promises

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — "I want it understood by everybody that by no county — not one small county — need fear it will be left out in the cold" by the Arkansas Highway Commission, says County Chairman Ramon F. Orr.

Orr's pledge was indirect response to criticism by Speaker of the House Carroll Hollenworth that the Commission is neglecting secondary roads to spend money on primary construction.

"Secondary roads and their improvement will never be disregarded," said Orr yesterday.

"At the end of two years, I expect there will be twice as many secondary roads paved and improved than primary miles."

Hollenworth had aimed his attack at Herbert Eldridge, Arkansas Highway Director who assumed office May 1.

Although Eldridge refused to comment directly on the criticism, he told a Little Rock civic club last night that the amount of secondary road construction was determined largely by the federal government.

"So there's no need getting excited about that," he said, adding that the state must depend on matching federal funds for road construction.

Most Complex Atomic Blast Is Set Off

LAS VEGAS, Nev., (AP) — In one of the most complex atomic tests yet held, a powerful A-bomb exploded today over a make-believe forest and simulated military installations at Nevada Proving Ground.

As a record contingent of 100 Air Force planes circled high overhead, the bomb-dropped from a B-50 bomber—burst at about 2,500 feet above Frenchman Flak with a brilliance that out-dazzled the daylight at 9:30 a.m. (CST).

Two thousand Army troops, 200 military and industrial observers and 15 congressmen, stationed at 19,800 yards—nearly six miles—from the blast, came through unscathed, the Atomic Energy Commission reported.

The pine trees were brought to the site several weeks ago and arranged to simulate a forest on the dry desert floor. There was no immediate account of the effects on the forest.

Unity Pleas Held Russia Together

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst
A campaign for internal unity, begun just after Premier George M. Malenkov took over, has reached such a furious peak in the Soviet press as to suggest some sort of internal crisis. This campaign may explain the sometimes bewildering Soviet peace offensive, as well as a tightening up of the Soviet Communist party and government.

By the beginning of May, almost every domestic item in Soviet organs had something to do with the theme of the "Inviolable-unity of the Soviet people."

Intervened over and over again was this theme: "So long as the friendship of peoples exists and flourishes, we need fear no enemies," but the press says "agents of imperialism, bourgeois nationalism and cosmopolitanism must be unmasked and eliminated."

Other articles explain how workers from far-flung Soviet provinces work together on hydroelectric stations and major construction. They tell how "with the brotherly help of the great Russian people, all the peoples of the USSR achieved no-

The building was formerly occupied by Caddo Machine Works at the Proving Ground.

Benny Bender, operator of the firm, told the group the building would enable him to start producing additional playground equipment which had to be dropped when his plant partially burned.

Administration Gives Up Try to Balance Budget

Record of Dispute Is Published

By G. MILTON KELLY
WASHINGTON, (AP) — The published record of the hot word battle between Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) and Editor James Wechsler is a crossfire of charges of "brain washing" and a "phony break" with communism.

The stenographic transcript, released yesterday by the Senate investigations subcommittee McCarthy heads, details the April 24 and May 5 hearings at which the senator and the newsmen denounced each other behind closed doors.

McCarthy has insisted he questioned Wechsler, not as the editor of "The New York Post" which has criticized him editorially, but as an author whose writings are in U. S. information libraries abroad. McCarthy says those writings do not show Wechsler broke with communism 16 years ago.

Wechsler contends he has shown by many acts and writings that he has been a vigorous anti-Communist since he quit the Young Communist League in 1937 at the age of 22. Wechsler says McCarthy "is out to get him as a newspaperman who opposes the senator in print."

"Your purported reformations," McCarthy told Wechsler in the hearing transcript, "does not convince me at all."

"Senator, let's face it," Wechsler told McCarthy at one point, "you are saying that an ex-Communist who is against McCarthy is suspect."

"Throughout the hearings," the record shows, McCarthy stuck to his accusation that Wechsler made a "phony break" with communism, and Wechsler maintained that McCarthy was engaged in "brain washing" to intimidate the press.

State Rails, Gas Firm to Raise Rates

By The Associated Press
Two railroads and a natural gas firm will raise their rates to Arkansians on Sunday.

It will cost Arkansians who buy tickets on the Missouri Pacific Lines or the St. Louis Southwestern (Cotton Belt) Railway 1/4 of a cent a mile more to travel from one point in the state to another.

Residents of 23 Arkansas towns will have to pay Mid South Gas Co. 1.4 cents more for 100 cubic feet of natural gas—beginning Sunday.

Maurice Buttram, director of transportation for the Arkansas Public Service Commission, said authorization for the railway passenger rate boost was not sought from the PSC. Its effective date coincides with the May 10 order to make similar increases on interstate fares under Interstate Commerce Commission authority.

The ICC granted 10 per cent increases to the lines.

Income Tax Cut Is Out of Question

WASHINGTON (UP) — The Eisenhower administration today gave up hope of balancing the budget in the fiscal year beginning July 1 — and with it apparently went hope for an income tax cut this year.

Secretary of Treasury George M. Humphrey gave out the bad news, he said, in fact, that the administration may have to ask Congress to raise the national debt limit of $275,000,000,000. The present debt is less than $10,000,000,000 from that limit.

Humphrey told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee he was "distressed" by imparting such information.

"There is no prospect at all for anything but an increase in the national debt at the present moment," Humphrey said.

President Eisenhower's administration has taken the position that taxes should not be cut until a balanced budget is definitely in sight.

Humphrey's statements indicated there was little chance for enactment of Rep. Daniel Reed's tax-cutting bill. The New York Republican nevertheless, is pressing for his bill to cut personal income taxes by about 10 percent beginning July 1. That would be an effective cut of about five percent for this calendar year.

Humphrey's statement was made in a closed session while he testified on Mr. Eisenhower's $25,000,000,000 foreign aid program. Some of his remarks were released later.

Spending May Exceed Demo Regime

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON, (AP) — Sen. Taft (R-Ohio) said today that unless present military and foreign aid plans are altered the Eisenhower administration may spend more in its first fiscal year than the Truman regime in its last.

Any such result could leave the Republicans on July 1, 1954 — with the congressional campaign starting — showing a deficit of around five billion dollars instead of the balanced budget and lower tax money of their promised in 1952.

Although Taft did not comment on this aspect, the Senator's majority leader said in an interview that on the basis of tentative military and foreign aid decisions spending will continue at a high level in the fiscal year beginning July 1.

"It may be a little more than the current rate unless some economies are made that aren't certain now," the Ohio senator said.

Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey may be questioned on that score when he testifies before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee today at a closed session on the foreign aid program.

Former President Truman estimated that in the fiscal year ending with next month, the Treasury would pay out $74,600,000,000. The actual amount may be somewhat less.

If the Republicans continue this level—which many criticized in last year's campaign—as warlike and extravagant—the outgo would be five billion dollars more than the 70 billions of spending Taft previously said would enable the administration to come close to balancing the budget.

The Ohio senator remained firm in the belief that the new administration will eliminate almost all the spending increases proposed by Truman when he estimated $74,600,000,000 in outgo for the coming fiscal year.

from the Communist side." "India," he added, "has taken the Communist viewpoint on how the prisoners should be handled." Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.), called the proposed commission a "stinked deck" because, he declared, India has supported the Red position on Korean island for years.

"This is only another plan to put India in charge of the prisoners," Knowland said. "The result would be the prevailing of the prisoners from only one side -- the Communist side."

Senators Sparkman (D-Ala.) and J. Alexander Smith (R-N.J.), like Knowland members of the foreign relations committee, said they regarded India as neutral. But Smith said such a satellite as Poland and Czechoslovakia should not be on the commission. And Sparkman said the line-up was "clearly unbalanced."

Election Called at Camden Plant

WASHINGTON 8 — The National Labor Relations Board today ordered three union elections held at the Shumaker Naval Ammunition Depot near Camden.

Its directive to employees of the National Ordnance Ordnance Corp., concerned a dispute among three labor unions about proper representation.

There were no firm estimates available on the overall total for foreign aid, but Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala.) said it is obvious the administration's program in that field would involve more than six billion in spending, only about 12 billion less than Truman requested for the new year.

The administration sent to Capitol Hill yesterday a defense budget calling for about $2,400,000,000 less military spending than Truman proposed. That would maintain the level fully close to this year's estimated rate of 43 billions.

Rep. Whigglesworth (R-Market of a House appropriations subcommittee said reductions in new appropriations would total about $5,100,000,000. New appropriations and actual spending differ because the government has on hand billions in funds.

Dr. R. Orin Cornett of Nashville, Tenn., told the 90th Southern Baptist Convention today that enrollment for the 1952-53 term totaled 52,000 as compared with 47,626 the previous term.

Reports that the Air Force would suffer the heaviest cuts in any military budget reductions brought prompt denials from the Air Force.

Sen. Maybank (D-S.C.) told his colleagues that if cuts proposed by Wilson mean the Air Force will have 120 wings instead of its 143-wing goal by mid-1955 it is "an alarming decision at this time."

Gen. Omar Bradley, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, was quoted by Chairman Wiley (R-Wis.) as telling the Senate foreign relations group yesterday that the joint chiefs "have given increasing importance to airpower and especially strategic airpower."

Wiley said it was his understanding that the Air Force goal would be simply stretched out a little and not cut back.

Bradley also said that the amount Eisenhower requested for foreign military aid was "considerably less" than the chiefs of staff hoped it would be.

Sen. Russell (D-Ga.), top ranking Democrat on the armed services committee, said that if it comes to a choice of reducing foreign aid funds or the amounts to be spent on equipping U. S. forces, he will vote to cut the former.

The American victims were identified as Miss Gilda Jordan, 49, of Rocky Ford, Colo.; Miss Bernice Viola Larson, 40, of La Crosse, Wis., and Miss Ann Spring, 29, of Honolulu, Hawaii.

DOROTHY DIX

Lassies are Scarce

Dear Miss Dix: You frequently say that girls and women outnumber men and boys, but I assure you such is not the case where I live. In British Columbia boys outnumber girls at least 5 to 1. I play for dances in two school districts, and in 30 years' attendance at these affairs I've never seen enough girls to go around. Many classes in school are entirely male.

I guess the cities have more females, because women just don't like the rugged life of the country. I've always wanted to get married, but with girls so scarce I didn't have a chance. Now I'm 46 and I guess any matrimonial idea can be given up.

Answer: You are undoubtedly correct in your assumption that the ladies prefer urban convenience to pioneering in a wilderness, although the idea of being a sought-after female among so many men certainly should appeal to quite a number of women.

Bright Lights vs. Country Air

Are you men doing anything to make your surroundings more appealing to women? Surely if you took steps to bring modern conveniences into the community, then did a good job of press-agency work of the woods, some girls might be induced to forsake the bright lights of a big town for fresh country air.

Dear Miss Dix: My son has been married to a fine girl for six years, and they have two children, a four-year-old and an infant of six months. My son has no patience with the older child. If the youngster doesn't obey instantly, or does something his father doesn't like, my son hits him on the head with open hand. He's been doing this since the child was able to walk. My son always has had a good home life, and my husband and I can't understand his attitude.

Answer: If your son will listen to the opinion of anyone—doctor, minister, you or your husband—let him know that he's on the way to doing irreparable physical harm to his child. Hard slaps on the head result in a boy becoming blind, deaf or even mentally deficient. The child's mother certainly should step in and take steps to force her husband to cease this senseless punishment. Her passive approval is almost as much to blame as her husband's temper. Soon he will begin the same tactics on the baby, so measures had better be taken now to teach the man some self-control.

Dear Miss Dix: Recently I wrote asking you for the name and address of a lady who had written to your column. You replied that her letter had been anonymous, and further information was not available. This I know to be an untruth, since papers never print unsigned letters.

Answer: I'm sorry you doubt my veracity, but nevertheless, my statement to you was correct. That particular letter, along with many hundreds I receive each week, was unsigned. It's true that certain departments of a paper will not print anonymous letters but this rule does not apply to columns such as this. The very nature of some people's problems makes them wish to observe anonymity in writing to me, although, as I often state, real names are never used in this column.

Dear Miss Dix: Please tell me who is wrong. I usually come home and ask my wife if she'd like to go to a show, or go to dinner and she always answers that it's up to me. She makes me feel that the only reason she goes with me is to please me.

Answer: Your wife certainly should show some enthusiasm over your projects. She doesn't know how lucky she is to be invited out so often. There is a possibility that she thinks you're only asking to please her, and would actually rather stay home yourself. Try to iron out these differences with her and find out why she is indifferent. Probably it's just that a display of enthusiasm is not natural to her.

right to do their bit. But they never lose a quarter to a bun, just to see his beaten eyes light up like candles.

Their clothes are always neatly pressed, their pockets are never stuffed with junk. Everything for them has a time and a place, and if it gets out of place it gets put back in its place quick.

They always go to the right little restaurant, and are cozyly sure how to order just the right wine. They know the right tip to leave, and they never leave a penny more, a penny less.

Their check stubs always balance; they are never overdrawn at the bank. They never miss a train or a plane, and they know the right time to leave a cocktail party. People who come to their cocktail parties had better leave at the right time, too, or they won't get invited back.

The right people lead lives that are proper, prim and premeditated. They see their dentist twice a year, get a medical checkup every spring and eat three fresh green vegetables every day. They pay their income tax a month before it is due. They not only have written their wills and bought a plot in a desirable part of the cemetery, they even know cabinet in regular weekly session today and had further opportunity to discuss the situation with top policy-makers.

No announcement was made. However, it was understood the consensus was that some provisions of the Red plan were unacceptable, but that further negotiations could be carried on with counter proposals.

Strong objection was apparent to a provision under which two European Communist countries, Czechoslovakia and Poland, would introduce troops into South Korea.

Those two, along with Switzerland, Sweden and India, would be members of a "Neutral Nations Repatriation Commission," such of which would provide armed forces to insure "effective execution" of the duties of the commission.

By ROBERT B. TUCKMAN
L'ANNUATION (th—) Allied negotiators today awaited instructions from Washington on how to answer the Communists' latest Korean armistice proposal—an eight-point plan aimed at breaking the prisoner exchange deadlock.

The Reds unveiled their offer unexpectedly yesterday and it went right to the top for decision.

The plan would set up a five-nation commission to take custody in Korea of 40,500 Red prisoners who refuse to return to communism.

With negotiations here in recess until 11 a. m. Saturday (8 p. m. EST Friday), President Eisenhower discussed the offer with his top state and military advisers in Washington.

They reportedly decided some provisions are unacceptable, but that the plan merits a counter-offer even though the Communists indicated they consider it a package deal, all or nothing.

One big question is the possibility of a hidden gimmick permitting the Reds to get back the 40,500 prisoners who say they won't return.

What they want carved on their tombstone.

Most men are prisoners of impulse and their lives are a compromise between an instinct for some kind of order and a free-wheeling appetite for pure chaos. So it is with my life, and sometimes the patterned security of the right people seems more desirable.

But never for long. For the trouble with the right people is they have life all wrong. Their biggest mistake is that they never make one. They are the snug vermillion dead, upright but not really alive. They plod from goal to goal but lack the gusty adventure to chase an impossible dream. They are afraid to dream, for fear it will break their little patterns.

The all-purpose vitamin pills they consume each day may keep them healthy as a cow in a meadow of chlorophyll. But they never nibble on the green moon cheese of illusion, and it is only by feeling on immortal dreams that a man may nourish his spirit, on a plateau beyond the ken of the cow, and become—a human being.

turn to communism. The Allies always have insisted that no one would be repatriated against his will.

Key points of the new Red plan include:

1. Acceptance of Allied demands that prisoners unwilling to return be left in Korea after an armistice, rather than transported to a neutral country.

2. Creation of a five-nation "Neutral Nations Repatriation Commission" of India, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Switzerland and Sweden, to take custody of those prisoners after an armistice.

3. Each of the five nations would send equal numbers of troops to Korea to control the prisoners.

Eisenhower and his advisers reportedly object most strongly to this point, which would permit the Communist troops of Russian satellites Poland and Czechoslovakia to watch over the prisoners, many of whom are violently anti-Communist.

4. After four months of Red "explanations" to the unwilling prisoners, leaving the fate of any who still refuse repatriation to a post-armistice, high-level political conference.

Unknown Leads Greenbrier Open

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va. (AP) - A grumbling Ben Hogan and a complaining Sam Snead went out today to catch upstart Shelby Mayfield in the second round of the 72-hole Greenbrier Open Golf Tournament.

The two famous linksmen were forced to concede the first round lead yesterday to the 28-year-old Mayfield, from Cedarhurst, L. I., but they weren't beefing about that so much as their own troubles.

Despite their disgruntled attitude, they were only a stroke behind, along with Pete Cooper of White Plains, N. Y., who took four strokes less than the par 70.

Hogan grumbled about the greens of the old White Course after finishing with his 67, including five birdies.

Hogan carved this 63-hole yard course to shreds in 1950, winning by 21 strokes ahead of par and 10 in front of Snead.

Filogamo Calls First Meet of Legionnaires

Marty Filogamo, who managed the Hope Legionnaires about half of the 1952 season, has been named to manage the Hope entry in the Southwest Arkansas League for the 1953 season. Filogamo is currently enrolled as a Junior at Henderson State Teachers College. He is majoring in business administration and ranks in the upper third of his class scholastically.

Legion officials announced that an agreement had been reached with Marty Wednesday night during the HISC-Southern State ball game played at Legion Field, Filogamo is ineligible to play in the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference because of the fact that he played professional baseball in the West Texas League following his discharge from the Armed Services in 1949.

Manager Filogamo has called for a meeting and practice session of all ball players interested in trying out for the Legionnaires for tonight at 7 p.m. at Legion Field. Local players are urged to report for practice tonight irrespective of whether they were members of last year's Legionnaires or not. Several recent high school graduates and senior members of the Hope American Legion Junior team are expected to report.

The first Southwest Arkansas League game is set for the last week in May, however, there is a possibility that one or two preliminary games will be played before the season opens.

Following tonight's practice session regular workouts will continue to be held.

Christianity MUST Win! . . . CHRISTIANITY WILL WIN!

In Her HONOR

Yes-sir-ee, the world voted her a day and Heaven was glad. Right now you should wrap up your heart in a card or a package and deliver it at once. She gave you life and love . . . what have you given her? Mother is our warm meal when we are hungry, our extra blanket when cold, our light in a dark room . . . it takes Mother every time.

There is something very special, something extra that comes only from mother . . . she makes us tick. Life will not change Mother's love, death will not conquer it. She is the soaring cloud of radiant rapture that lifts us to new attempts and the strength we need to see us through. This is Mother's Day, may we be with her in Church.
